

Razorblade Tears: A Riveting Noir Novel That Cuts Deep

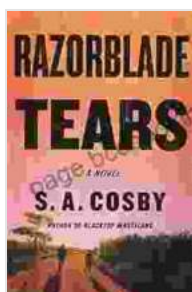

Synopsis

In the gritty underbelly of a small Virginia town, private investigator Ike Randolph, a Black man with a troubled past, is drawn into a chilling case.

When his estranged brother, Buddy Lee, a white man, is murdered, Ike vows to find his killer and uncover the sinister truth behind his death.

As Ike delves deeper into his investigation, he encounters a labyrinth of corruption, racism, and secrets that threaten to consume him. He uncovers a conspiracy involving crooked cops, shady politicians, and the dark history of his family. Haunted by the ghost of his brother and his own troubled childhood, Ike must confront his inner demons while navigating a treacherous path of danger and deceit.
