Synopsis:

In the heart of the Tri-Cities, where the Hanford Nuclear Reservation casts an eerie glow, Mercy Thompson finds herself at the crossroads of danger and destiny. When a young woman is brutally murdered, Mercy's instincts as a shapeshifter pull her into a web of ancient secrets and supernatural conflicts.

As she delves deeper into the investigation, Mercy encounters a shadow organization known as "The Free Download," a group of ruthless hunters determined to control the supernatural world. Amidst the chaos, she must confront the rising power of a malevolent entity that threatens to consume all in its path.

With her packmates and allies by her side, Mercy races against time to unravel the truth behind the murder, protect the innocent, and face the darkest forces that lurk in the shadows.

Review:

"Smoke Bitten is a thrilling and suspenseful addition to the Mercy Thompson series. Briggs' world-building is impeccable, and her characters are vibrant and relatable. Mercy's journey is filled with action, adventure, and heart-pounding moments that will keep you on the edge of your seat."
