Written by an anonymous waiter with over a decade of experience, Thanks For The Tip is full of funny and eye-opening stories about the people and events that make working in a restaurant so memorable. From the good customers who make your day to the bad ones who make you want to quit, you'll get a taste of it all in this book.

But Thanks For The Tip is more than just a collection of funny stories. It's also a sharp and insightful look at the hospitality industry. The author pulls no punches in his criticism of the industry's long hours, low pay, and lack of respect for workers. But he also celebrates the camaraderie and sense of community that can be found among restaurant workers.

Whether you're a current or former restaurant worker, or just someone who enjoys a good laugh, you'll love Thanks For The Tip. It's a book that will make you laugh, cringe, and think about the hospitality industry in a whole new way.
