Stardust: A Cosmic Odyssey

Fletcher Hanks's most enduring creation, Stardust, emerged from the pages of Star Comics in 1940. An enigmatic wanderer from the distant planet Stardust, this extraterrestrial hero possessed an array of extraordinary abilities, including flight, super strength, and the power to manipulate time and space. Hanks's depiction of Stardust was both awe-inspiring and otherworldly, capturing the cosmic grandeur of a universe beyond human comprehension.

Fantomah: The Jungle Empress

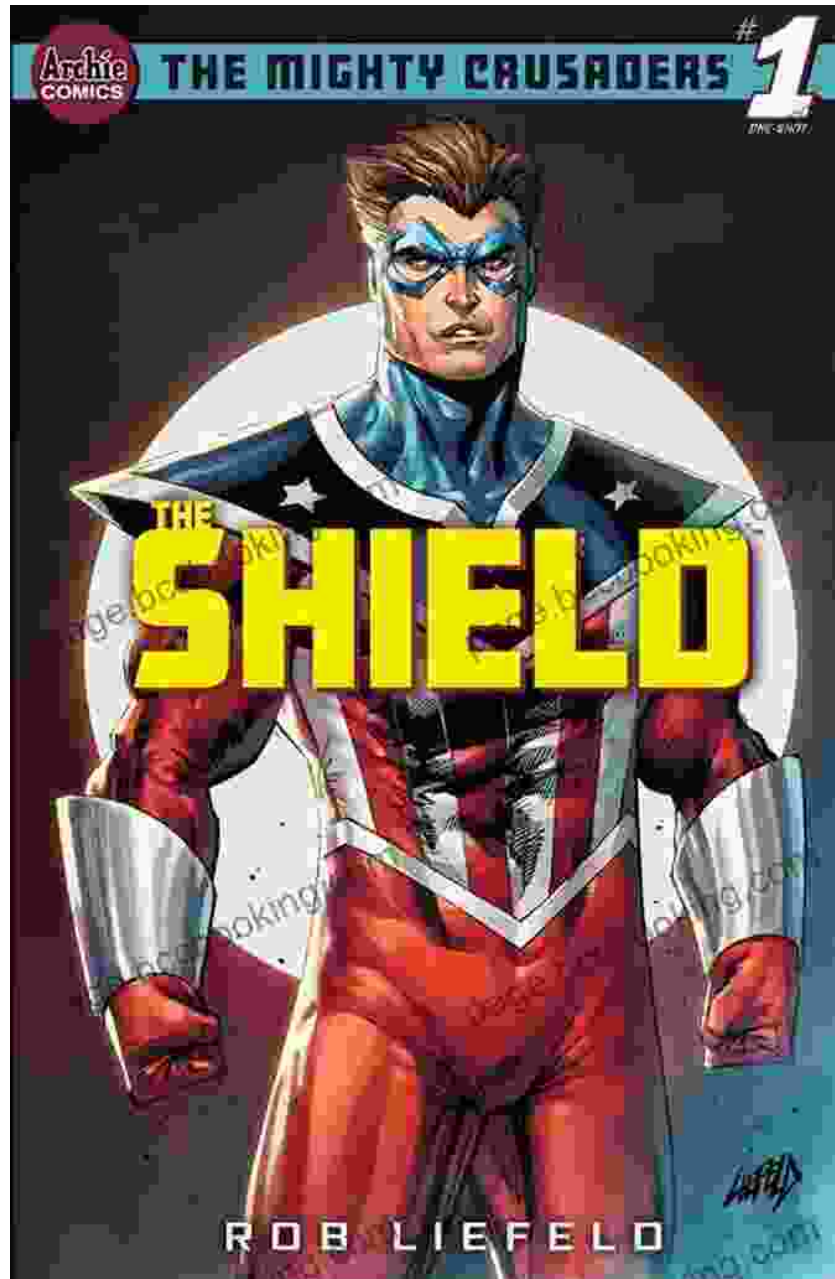

In the steamy jungles of Africa, Fletcher Hanks unleashed another unforgettable creation: Fantomah, the Jungle Empress. This fierce and beautiful heroine, blessed with the power to transform into a panther, fought tirelessly against the forces of evil that threatened her domain. Hanks's portrayal of Fantomah was both thrilling and empowering, showcasing the strength and determination of a female hero in a genre dominated by male characters.
